Freedom Forever

As a nation we sometime need to join hands and hearts. Now is such a time because 9/11 was such a time. On the Friday following that tragic day, at noon, we, as a grieving nation, filled our places of worship and prayed together.

In a California seaside neighborhood church I, too, prayed for our nation and myself, "Dearest Father-Mother God, what can I do?"

These words came . . .

"Help the living. Give love.

Give compassion. Give your talents!"

As I left the church and lingered by the sea, I penned the words to a little poem, "Freedom Forever Wins." Then, I sat silently looking at the "shining sea" and the "ocean white with foam" and sang "America the Beautiful," "My Country 'Tis of Thee," and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Oh, how comforting, inspiring, and enlightening our patriotic songs are! our Declaration of Independence, our Constitution, and the speeches of our statesmen, past and present.

What great Words of Freedom they express!

The idea came to compile our beautiful and wonderful words of freedom in a little book, which we can read as a nation, rejoicing in our freedom and knowing that no attack can ever destroy it. Thus, we can share these words with our children and the children of those who vanished from our sight, but not from the sight of God, on September 11, 2001.

And now, this little book, Freedom Forever, is published to share with our troops serving to protect us against terrorism.

The words in this book are the very heart, soul, spirit, letter, resolve, and life of America. Freedoms won and Freedom Forever living on.

God Bless with Love and Goodness, Joycebelle

What Freedom Forever Gives You!

"You will gain what I have gained from this little book. It is amazing!"

"What I learned is how much I did not know and did not appreciate about our country, our way of life, our love, our goodness, our people."

"When I looked at our flag in Freedom Forever, I thought of the many flag makers that have been called upon to make our flags. I was amazed to find that the stars in the Star Spangled Banner Flag were two feet across, that it was 42 feet long was made with 400 yards of wool bunting and was sewed by hand with linen thread. I felt a deepened love for our flag, a greater respect and a heightened sense of awareness of its importance in our lives."

"While I was reading about, the Marine's Hymn I found that it probably was written by an unnamed Marine who was fighting at Montezuma down in Mexico, I felt a love for that Marine far away from home and all the other ones who have added verse after verse for every new location Marines have landed around the world over the years. I had to smile as I read the competitive lines:

"If the Army and the Navy
Ever look on heaven's scenes
They will find the streets are guarded by
THE UNITED STATES MARINES."

"I had never read those lines before."

"Ah, yes, the words, 'Under God' were added to our Pledge of Allegiance in 1954. President Eisenhower said, 'In this way we are reaffirming the transcendence of religious faith in America's heritage and future, in this way we shall constantly strengthen those spiritual weapons which ever will be our country's most powerful resource in peace and war.'"

"What an honor and a privilege! I always thought I loved my country, but now I really do, and I know why. At the same time I love me more and you more and our diverse population and all those around the world more. As our Statue of Liberty exemplifies, it's good to be an American welcoming and embracing the world with love for freedom. That's what this little book did for me. Freedom Forever will uplift you and heal our nation as well."

"Mostly, I feel humble to be an American. I gained a true sense of humility."

"And the quotes, the wonderful remarkable words of great people of all faiths, nationalities and walks of life. I was inspired to write poetry and even a lively reggae song in Praise of One God and Peace. And the contents of Freedom Forever will inspire you, too."

Freedom Forever Wins

As we see this country grieving,
We also see togetherness — giving.
Terror cannot win, where
Love is within.

Terror is hate and fear.
Love is goodness ever near.
Terror is momentary,
Temporary error—
Evil ends!

Love is victorious.
Truth,
Oh so glorious,
Freedom Forever—
Wins!
